Join the Xbox Ambassadors community, make a difference

Community Blue Tiger Jun 29, 2019

Xbox Ambassadors are more than a community. We are a worldwide network of gamers who celebrate the uniqueness of everyone, promote a safe gaming environment, and above all else, make gaming fun for everyone. When you connect with and are welcomed by that many gamers, it's impossible not to find your own Xbox family.

Having joined the Xbox Ambassador community a little over a year ago introduced me to so many more gamers that feel like family. – Diabolic Jester

I joined the Xbox Ambassador community over the past year and during that time I have gotten to know a lot of the Ambassadors. Some of these bonds have even grown into some incredibly meaningful friendships and I cherish them all deeply. Thanks to each and every one of you for being who you are. – bobyevil

As an Xbox Ambassador you will have the opportunity to join playdates, chat with likeminded gamers, discover new ways to play, and interact with the community, your way. If you're interested in making an impact on the Xbox community as an Ambassador, we'd love to have you. Plus, one thing is true—Xbox is the best place to play, and the community is what makes this, our home, so special.

So, are you in? Become an Xbox Ambassador today and start making an impact on your community, your way.
